Dear Library Friend,

We invite you to fill out and return the enclosed 2014 Fizz, Boom, Read participation form. Last year's program DIG INTO READING provided reading opportunities, as well as, fun and creative activities for Alaskan children. More libraries are participating than ever before. Please join or join us again!

As in year's past, we will order a basic package of materials for your library as described on the participation form for 25 or 50 participants. If you need additional materials, you can view and buy them at low cost from the Upstart and the Collaborative Summer Library Program by going online to <http://cslpreads.org/order> (If you have not created a log on account for the site, you will need to do that). It's easy, just click on the "Create Account" button. You can place an order by clicking on Shop Now on the top yellow bar. We enclose a glossy catalog and order form of the products available for all ages including the Adult Reading program, which some Alaska libraries conduct.

If you prefer or you have questions about any of the products, you can phone in your order or question. The number to call for Customer Service Support is: 1-855-255-2757.
